RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On December 15, 2020, Melissa Caparrelli filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA) as a result of receiving the influenza (flu) vaccination on she received November 19, 2018. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccine was administered in the United States, her vaccine-related injuries have lasted more than six months, and that no lawsuits have been filed or settlements or awards accepted by anyone, including the petitioner, due to her vaccine-related injury. Petition at 6. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On December 13, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Respondent concluded that "[P]etitioner's claim meets the Table criteria for SIRVA." Id. at 4. Specifically, Respondent determined that "[P]etitioner had no apparent history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction of the affected shoulder prior to intramuscular vaccine administration that would explain the alleged signs, symptoms, examination findings, and/or diagnostic studies occurring after vaccine injection; she more likely than not suffered the onset of pain within forty-eight hours of vaccine administration; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the intramuscular vaccine was administered; and there is no other condition or abnormality present that would explain [P]etitioner's symptoms." Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
